

Clue 3 - A spelling exercise

You already know that all diners who had an umbrella left and the one who stayed behind is a lady.

In this clue you need to correct the spellings of the words in bold. The numbers in brackets indicate which letters you need from the correct spelling to make up the clue. Try to do as many as you can without anything to help you.

Jeremy became conciuous (4, 6) of the existense (2, 5, 6) of the new conveneyence (5, 9) store when he walked past it on the way for his fisical (1) check-up. In his proffesion (5, 9) one of the privelleges (1, 6, 7) was an annual visit to parlliement (4, 8) on the twelth (5, 6) of September. Having atatched (3, 6) himself to the end of the cyue (3), he started reading the latest guvvernment (5, 8) leaflet out of cuoriosety (6, 8).

Last Tuesday, he had started his job as treasurer of the amatyer (3, 6) dramatic society. Already he had, on avrage (4, 5) written his signityear (4, 6) four times a day on cheques. To his nolige (4), there was still plenty of money in the account.

On that same day, his neybor (5, 7) Mr Murray – whose name rimed (2) with curry had crashed his car. Akkording (1, 6) to Mrs Murray he was very immbarast (3) as his veeikle (6) had skidded off the road and crashed into a yocht (2, 3) leaving the boat hanging over a river at an orcward (3) angle. She hoped the owner would not hurras (1, 2) her husband as he synseerly (2, 6) wanted to make up for his error.

